GROUNDS FOR SCULPTURE

OCTOBER 4, 2017

The Grounds for Sculpture has expanded with additional pieces and a wonderful new Visitor Center. The site in Hamilton, NJ, is home to over 300 sculptures, from monumental to small scale, spread over the beautifully landscaped 42 acre park and in the museum. Located on the site of the former New Jersey State Fairgrounds, the historic buildings have been renovated and feature changing exhibits. In addition to the permanent works there will be several temporary exhibits while we are there. Go to groundsforsculpture.org to learn about contemporary sculptors Elyn Zimmerman and Daniel Clayman. There is a lot of walking on this tour, but the surface is flat and the pace leisurely.

We will be welcomed into the new Visitor Center which is much larger, has expanded rest rooms, and features a comfortable area to watch the introductory film before our guided tour. Lunch is on your own. On the grounds you will find lunch at RATS Restaurant - upscale dining, reservations a must 609 584 7800; at the Van Gogh Cafe in the Visitor Center (French inspired street fare - crepes, baguette sandwiches, artisanal cheeses, craft beer, wine, coffee bar, and patisserie); or at the Peacock Cafe in the Domestic Arts Building (sandwiches, salads, soups, pizza, beer and wine).

The bus will leave from the Library, 3700 Mechanicsville Road, Whitehall, PA 18052, at 8:30 AM on October 4, 2017. Our one hour guided tour starts at 11AM, and at its conclusion you are on your own until 3:30 when we leave for Whitehall. Have lunch, enjoy the grounds, visit the buildings, and browse in the gift shop. Be sure to complete purchases so that we can leave promptly at 3:30. We travel RAIN OR SHINE - be prepared.
