

Battle of the Books

Monday, April 8, 2019
6:30 p.m.

Prepare for battle! This National Library Week, the Greater Lehigh Valley Writers Group presents a free program of literary adventure. Watch three local authors pit their works against each other in a competition where you, the audience, will be the judge and decide who reigns supreme.

Join us for an evening of readings, games, prizes, and fun for everyone. Authors will close the event with a Q & A session, book signing, and a time to talk with them afterwards.
